And in case any of the officers, so authorized to take care of the effects of deceased officers and soldiers, should, before they have accounted to their representatives for the same, have occasion to leave the regiment or post, by preferment or otherwise, they shall, before they be permitted to quit the same, deposit in the hands of the commanding officer, or of the nearest military agent, all the effects of such deceased non-commissioned officers and soldiers, in order that the same may be accounted for, and paid to, their respective representatives.

NOTE 1.—This blank will be used for both enlistments and re-enlistments—collection of veterans, &c., &c., in the volunteer service. They will be made out in duplicate in all cases—one to accompany the recruiting officer of the recruiting office (not the recruiting officer) to the Adjutant General, and one to accompany the accounts of the officer who pays bounty, &c. The Regiment and Company in which the soldier has served should be given on the back.

NOTE 2.—An enlistment holds to service. A soldier's name, in all cases, precedes payment of pay, bounty, pension, &c. A soldier's roll must, in all cases, be filed in the Adjutant General's Office as evidence of service. The recruiting officer, commissary, or assistant commissary of recruits, or the one may be, will countersign both enlistments as having introduced the soldier into the service of the United States before either of them is given to the recruiting officer.

When the facts are not known to the company commander, the certificate of any officer, or affidavit of other person having such knowledge, will be appended—as the surgeon in charge of a hospital, the officer commanding a detachment of recruits, &c., &c.

When a probable case for pension, special care must be taken to state the degree of disability—as $\frac{1}{2}$, &c., &c.; to describe particularly the disability, wound, or disease; the extent to which it deprives him of the use of any limb or faculty, or affects his health, strength, activity, constitution, or capacity to labor or earn his subsistence. The surgeon will add, from his knowledge of the facts and circumstances, and from the evidence in the case, his professional opinion of the cause or origin of the disability. In the case of discharges by Medical Inspectors, the last paragraph will state that the "discharge was given by consent of the soldier, after a personal examination, and for disability, the nature, degree, and origin of which are correctly described in the within certificate."

Par. 1260 Regulations, Edit. 1861.

Medical officers, in giving certificates of disability, are to take particular care in all cases that have not been under their charge; and especially in epilepsy, convulsions, chronic rheumatism, derangement of the urinary organs, ophthalmia, ulcers, or any obscure disease liable to be feigned or purposely produced; and in no case shall such certificate be given until after sufficient time and examination to detect any attempt at deception.

DIRECTIONS.

This certificate will be made out in duplicate by the soldier's company commander, or other officer commanding the separate detachment to which he belongs and sent by him to the surgeon who has charge of the hospital where the soldier is sick. The surgeon will then fill out and sign the surgeon's certificate, and forward these papers to the regimental, detachment, or post commander, who will forward them, with his action endorsed thereon, through the proper channel, to his division commander; or, if the troops are not attached to a division, to his corps, department, or other commander or officer to whom the authority to discharge enlisted men may be specially delegated.

These certificates, after having received the action of the highest authority to which they are required to be sent, will be returned through the same channel to the regimental, post, or detachment commander, who will, if the discharge is authorized by the endorsement of the proper authority, sign the soldier's discharge, and the last certificate on this paper; and that the soldier is furnished with the proper final statements in duplicate, and forward BOTH of these certificates direct to the Adjutant General United States Army, at Washington, D. C.; they will not under any circumstances be given into the hands of the soldier.

Sir

Private H. A. Davis of Co M 9th Cal.
M. S. M. received a furlough for two days on account of the severe illness of his wife.
Since his arrival Dr Davis & myself have been attending on her daily with no expectation of her recovery. To day we have faint hope that she may finally recover. Mr Davis has no one to depend on to attend to his wife if he is compelled to a return soon and humanity calls loud in his behalf, that he if possible, may have an extension of furlough and if not improper he would be glad to be detailed again as cook in the Hospital here until his wife can get able to take care of herself and infant & some four other helpless children. Private Davis is a worthy man and deserving of any favor that can be bestowed not inconsistent with the service that may have connection with the present condition of his family - He is present furlough

NOTE 1.

The company commander will here add a statement of all the facts known to him concerning the disease or wound, or cause of disability of the soldier; the time, place, manner, and all the circumstances under which the injury occurred, or disease originated or appeared; the duty, or service, or situation of the soldier at the time the injury was received or disease contracted, stating particularly whether the injury was received or the disease contracted in the line of his duty; and whatever other facts may aid a judgment as to the cause, immediate or remote, of the disability, and the circumstances attending it.

When the facts are not known to the company commander, the certificate of any officer, or affidavit of other person having such knowledge, will be appended—as the surgeon in charge of a hospital, the officer commanding a detachment of recruits, &c., &c.

When a probable case for pension, special care must be taken to state the degree of disability—as l. l. &c., &c.; to describe particularly the disability, wound, or disease; the extent to which it deprives him of the use of any limb or faculty, or affects his health, strength, activity, constitution, or capacity to labor or earn his subsistence. The surgeon will add, from his knowledge of the facts and circumstances, and from the evidence in the case, his professional opinion of the cause or origin of the disability. In the case of discharges by Medical Inspectors, the last paragraph will state that the "discharge was given by consent of the soldier, after a personal examination, and for disability, the nature, degree, and origin of which are correctly described in the within certificate."

Par. 1360 Regulations, Ed. 1861.

Medical officers, in giving certificates of disability, are to take particular care in all cases that have not been under their charge; and especially in epilepsy, convulsions, chronic rheumatism, derangement of the urinary organs, ophthalmia, ulcers, or any chronic disease liable to be feigned or purposely produced; and in no case shall such certificate be given until after sufficient time and examination to detect any attempt at deception.

DISPOSITION.

This certificate will be made out in duplicate by the soldier's company commander, or other officer commanding the separate detachment to which he belongs, and sent by him to the surgeon who has charge of the hospital where the soldier is sick. The surgeon will then fill out and sign the surgeon's certificate, and forward these papers to the regimental, detachment, or post commander, who will forward them, with his action endorsed thereon, through the proper channel, to his division commander; or, if the troops are not attached to a division, to his corps, department, or other commander or officer to whom the authority to discharge enlisted men may be specially delegated.

These certificates, after having reached the action of the highest authority to which they are required to be sent, will be returned through the same channel to the regimental, post, or detachment commander, who will, if the discharge is authorized by the endorsement of the proper authority, sign the soldier's discharge, and the last certificate on this paper, and that the soldier is furnished with the proper final statements in duplicate, and forward BOTH of these certificates direct to the Adjutant General United States Army, at Washington, D. C.; they will not, under any circumstances, be given from the hands of the soldier.

If not inconsistent with your duties, will you be kind enough to inform me what disposition is to be made of me. If there is no other place in which I may be considered useful than under command of Col. Williams, I shall immediately request a leave of absence for the purpose of settling up my business with the Government. I hope you will not think that I say this for the purpose of making a threat or of creating trouble, but my reasons were so well understood by Gen. Quitman that he never asked me to serve under him (Col. W.) although the General and myself did not agree in many things. These reasons I suppose you do not require, as they are mainly personal.

Danville Mo.

May 26th 1864.

General,

In obedience to your directions I reached this place this morning, and after consultation with Union citizens here, I find the condition of the militia of this county to be about as follows. There are about two hundred and seventy (270) men enrolled for service. From this number not more than one hundred (100) can be relied upon for active duty. The others are sympathizers, some of whom would take to the brush rather than do duty in the militia - physically unfit, and otherwise. A thorough reliance can be placed upon the one hundred men to whom I refer.

There are no arms in the county except private arms, shot guns small pistols and the like. I have no doubt arms could be procured for these men from State Hq. Is.
They are willing to go in for the summer's campaign if necessary.
They can be ready to go into the field in one week provided the necessary arms & supplies can be procured. They need in addition to arms, camp equipage - Tents, cooking utensils &c for one hundred men, also one wagon; for this, however they can depend upon loyal citizens for the present.

In regard to the bushwhackers I think there is a prospect for considerable trouble. Those who caused the late scare here, were undoubtedly ly a gang of which the Hermann murders were a part. I think there is no doubt now of the fact that they are making their way to Monroe County. I shall take what men can be spared from Fulton, leaving enough for personal protection to the Prov. Marshal, and start in that direction tomorrow morning. In the meantime I suppose the officer in command at Palmyra will be on the alert. I have already sent a messenger to Fulton with the necessary orders to Campbell.

I do not believe there are any of the thieves in this neighborhood just now.

I shall probably let you hear from me next at Mexico by telegraph.

I have the honor to be

Captain

I have the honor to request that I may be relieved from duty in charge in your office; - Having received order (during your absence) from Dept. Head Quarters placing me on Special duty within the Department.

I was requested by Lt. Clarke to remain until your return from leave of absence, on your return I saw the condition of your office (Having new Clerk who ~~was~~ not acquainted, with the duties of your office) I thought I could be of some service to you by remaining. I have stopped with you till the end of the month, thinking that in not complying with my order immediately - would make no material difference.

I would like for the order to date from to-day

If I could not be asking too much from you, I would be glad to have a recommendation from you as to my conduct since I have been on duty with you

Hoping this will meet with your approval I am

Very Respectfully

I have the honor to state that on the 14th day of September 1864. Private David J. Ruffy, made application for the position of Special United States Detective Police Officer, in place of George H. P. Payne (promoted to Louisiana in 1863). The application was sent me and my endorsement was as follows.

Respectfully forwarded to Col J. J. Saunders P. M. O. Dept of the Mo with his recommendation that the appointment be made. Mr Ruffy is a man of good character and possesses the ability for great service in the Dept.

NOTATION.

Book mark: 5928. S. 1887

War Department.

Adjutant General's Office,

Washington, Nov. 29, 1887

This man deserted on or about August 6, 1862, and returned on or about Feb. 6, 1863.

As he was subsequently restored to duty by competent authority without trial, but upon conditions which appear to have been complied with (so far as not waived by the Government), the charge of desertion no longer stands against him. The record of the fact that he was absent in desertion from on or about Aug. 6 1862, to on or about Feb. 6, 1863 cannot, however, be expunged.

Colonel,

I have the honor to report that Private Dennis Dunn Co. "B" 9th Cavalry M.S.M. was shot July 31st by bushwhackers about three miles north ^{near} Bloomfield near a secessionists house whose name is Brooks & whom we have prisoner unless he was among those sent to St. Louis a few days since. The heirs of Dennis Dunn are by virtue of "Genl Order No 3" entitled to $5,000 to be levied by the "County Board" upon secession allies of whom there are hundreds in Callaway county where the foul deed was committed. Dunn entered the service in Randolph county Mo. it is said no wife or children & probably no parents in this country.

Hee has however a cousin in Col.
Chitaw 9th Regt. Cal. Inf. M. probably in the same company with the deceased and if there is no nearer relative the $5,000 should be paid to him. I desire that this may be referred to the Callaway County Board with instructions by the Civil Comm. of My Dear and only son, Sheldon

I have received your letter and was glad to hear from you and that you were well, I wish you would resign and come home to your family so I can live and live with you in my old age. I am in my 77 year of age not able to do any thing since I left Mo, it is over a year since I was attacked with the Typhoid and am not well of it yet have tried every medicine that the doctors have prescribed to no effect I am taking the Oridoin Linnament and the yellow Dock and Sassafrilla which is strongly recommended to cure, But it has been so long since I was taken and being over my eye and on my forehead I have all most concluded that it cant be cured, I hope you will make an effort to get a discharge from the service I think you have done your part in this unholy Rebellion, no news of importance write soon from your Affectionate Father

Headquarters Dist. North Mo.
Macon Mo. Feb. 21st 1865

General:

In compliance with your telegram of the 5th inst. I caused Capt. Eaton 9th Cav. Mo. S. M. commanding Post of Fayette to be placed in arrest for allowing his men to commit depredations; and ordered Capt. Cook at Rockport to send up the evidence. Capt. Cook returned the order with an endorsement stating that he had been stationed at Rockport but a few weeks, and having had no communication with the Post of Fayette (commanded by Capt. Eaton) he had no means of knowing and does not know whether Capt. Eaton has permitted or is in any way responsible for any depredations that may have been committed by troops in that County.

Capt. Eaton has always hitherto been a most faithful and efficient officer, and has been recently highly commended by the citizens for the peace and good order he has maintained in the County and for the discipline and control he has exercised over his command.

Capt. Eaton was absent on "leave" from the 2^d to the 28^d of January; and although reports have reached me that some depredations have been committed by troops in that County I am convinced that it was in his absence; and that the depredations were committed by a portion of Co. A. 9th Cav. M. S. Ia. which has since been mustered out of service.

In view of all the facts I would respectfully request that Capt. Eaton be released from arrest, and returned to duty. In the mean time I have taken steps to thoroughly investigate the alleged outrages and depredations and will hold whoever may be responsible therefor to a strict accountability.

I am, General,

Very respectfully
Yours Obedient Servant

General

Having learned from my son Lieut Thomas English that you had some conversation with him in regard to finding some position in the army that would be more pleasant than the one he now holds (that of a private soldier in the 9th cav) Thomas informs me that his captain has reduced himself and Lieut Figgins to the ranks, even that is no rendered more unpleasant as the officers of the company are his bitterest enemies, so he is very unpleasantly situated. Thomas is a young man possessing a very high sense of honour, and does not like to serve under men that have disgraced the uniform they wear. Such at least has been the case of two of the officers of his company the other is now wearing the stripes that properly belong to him for which he would be elected by any vote in the company except 9 or 10. (They the tools of Capt Glaze.) The arrest and imprisonment of my son was mostly done to prevent him from being elected to fill the vacancy that the 2^d Lieut now holds.

It is a well known fact in this section that Thomas and one more (the son of Dr Baughman) were the only two young men that were loyal from the start ^{in this place}. My son would have been one of the first to enlist under the banner of the brave Lyon, but for an unfortunate accident he met with his the fall of 1861 by being scalded by the explosion of a steam boiler which rendered him helpless for over a year or at least so much so that he could not go into the army. And when he did he had two large ulcers on his breast which healed up in about two months after he was in the service. I believe it is admitted by all the men of his regiment that there was no braver young man in it, as was proved by his coolness and bravery at the Battles of Moss Mill and Kirksville. In the whole chase after Pindexter & Porter under Gen McNeil. Any position you could get for him I am satisfied he would fill with credit to himself and advantageous to the Government.

He has been raised with a great deal of care, free from all bad habits to be found amongst most of the young men of our day, is strictly honest possessing a high moral principle. It is with pride that I (his father) can say thus much of him. Every man that knows him from quite a boy will say as much.

It will be natural for you to enquire how has he gained the illwill of his company officers? I can answer.

It is not an infrequent thing that subordinate officers are more respected by the men than the superiors, and hence the illwill of those superiors. Another reason His Captain had been engaged in Peculations, and guilty of other acts "unbecoming an officer and a gentleman." Thomas and some of the men often talked about exposing him, but feared the tyrannical disposition of the man they done nothing about it, but they had taken one or two men into their confidence that betrayed them to the captain. That was the principle cause of the arrest, and imprisonment of the 18 or 20 young men amongst the rest. Charges have been preferred against Capt Glegg, but they have been not been noticed by Gen Guiter. as he is one of Gen Guiter's particular Pets. The 1st Lieut is a drunken sot was a common loafer, then in Glasgow without any character.

I regret the necessity of troubling you so much with these details but they are facts that can be substantiated and I think it time that these things be investigated.

If you could find some suitable place for my son that he could be useful I would be willing for him to remain in the army, also that excellent young man Lieut John E. Faggins his fellow prisoner. I would take as a special favour. If Thomas could get a commission to recruit a company of Buffs and have the privilege of recruiting out of the 9th Can M.D.M. he could get $\frac{3}{4}$ of the men in his old company and enough out of others to form three or four companies. In his company there are excellent soldiers as good material as there is in the Federal army, they would follow Thomas to the "jumping off place".

Please let me hear from you

Yours obt Servt

Paul: Gunter
in regard to Taylor & others.

Head Quarters District North Missouri,

Macon, Decr 15^d, 1863.

Major,

Your Communication in regard to the Cases of Sergt English and Foggins, &c. &c. has just been received and the opinion of the Commanding General Carefully Considered. You No doubt remember the Circumstances of this Case, it was a mutiny instigated and headed by Foggins and English, the object of which no doubt was to force the Captain to resign in order that they might succeed respectively to the Captaincy and 2^d Lieutenantcy then vacant this at least was alleged as the motive and all the Circumstances point to it as most reasonable & plausible.

At least half of the Company were in sympathy with, if not actually involved in the movement, fifteen or twenty were tried & convicted and subjected to mild punishment of one sort and of other, others were discharged without trial on the score of youth, penitence & other Considerations, so upon the whole the Case has been treated with the utmost leniency.

The parties now in Confinement, were selected as the leaders and of course the proper subjects for Examples, & even their sentences were tempered with abundant mercy.

In addition to this there has been nothing in the Conduct of these men or their friends since their Conviction Calculated to excite much Sympathy in their behalf. They have both been lavish in their denunciations of the Members of the Court that tried them and the men themselves have shown little signs of penitence or Contrition, In my Judgment a purer and more unexceptionable Court was never convened, and a more impartial or indulent Sentence seldom rendered, I have felt it due the Court and the Captain of the Company, not to be hasty in showing these men further indulgence. Not withstanding, I have always been disposed to relieve these men whenever I became satisfied that the objects of punishments had been subserved, and that I could do so in such a way as not to impair the efficiency and discipline of the Regiment to which they belong, and without discountenancing to those whose opinions bear the sanction of their Oaths.

I therefore propose to pardon these men with loss of pay, and allowances, to date of release, provided that they are transferred or enlisted in some other Mo Regt either the State Militia or Vols.

Whatever else may be done it will never do to return these men to the Company or Regt to which they belonged.
Their presence in the Company would excite all the old sympathy & keep alive the sedition of which they were authors, and their presence in the Regt would destroy all that has been accomplished by their Examples

Please advise me if the transfer can and will be made, and if necessary that it should be incorporated in the order of Jardon, let me know to what Company and Regiment they will be transferred

Very Respectfully

Chas H. H. Dunn, Judge Advocate.

Dear Sir

After seeing you on last Friday afternoon I saw Gen Guiter, told him that he could have my son and the rest of his companions released if he wished to do so. He told me to get the officers of the court to sign a recommendation for their release, he said he would then endorse their recommendation for the release of the young men.

I thought best to write you so that you might suspend action for a short time, till you hear from me again. I have written to one of the officers of the court that tried them on the subject and think I will have the papers sent on in a few days

Mr H H Duns

Judge Advocate }

Dear Sir

I wrote you some time ago to hold the proceedings in the case of my son Thomas A English and his fellow prisoners of the 9th Cav. to see if Gen Quiton would do anything for their release. I see there is no hope from that quarter. If you are going to send the papers to Washington do so as soon as you can get time to examine them. My son will send you the defence in his care that I made out from notes I had taken on his trial. I wanted to make out a defence for the rest also but I can not get the proceedings from Head Quarters at Moscow although I have written to Gen Quiton and several others for them. If you ^{will} have the kindness to let one of your clerks write me, and let me know how I am to proceed, to get copies, you will oblige me very much.

Very Respectfully Yours

Wmth English

St Louis Nov 16 ~ 1863

To Maj. Gen Jas B Scofield
General

I take the liberty of calling your attention to the case of six prisoners lately sent from Macon Mo. to this city to await confirmation of sentence of Court Martial. Amongst ^{them} my son. Their names are Sergeant John E Foggins & Thomas A English and Privates John W Howard, Arthur F Kuhn Henry Schultz, & Augustus Andrews, all of Co H 9th Cav M.S.M. I shall only attempt to vindicate the young men, ~~only~~ so far as their several cases demand from past good conduct. They were arrested for an alleged mutiny said to have taken place at Brunswick Mo on the 18th of August last, and have now been in confinement about three months.

I would here state that I am familiar with the whole case having been present at their trial. Being also well acquainted with nearly all the members of the company. Having with the help of my son Thomas recruited the greater part of the company gotten up at Glasgow Mo. Having conversed with nearly the whole company I think I understand the whole case. You will have a tolerable correct history of it in reading my sons "Statement" which I enclose with this.

In the first place I will admit that the young men all, done wrong and deserved some punishment. They all know it is the first duty of a soldier to obey orders. That point all must admit. But from the length of time they are now in confinement. I hope you will consider that they have been already sufficiently punished for any offences they may have committed.

I will here state that the general reputation of Co H of the 9th Cavalry was better than that of any other company in the Regiment. It was composed mostly of young men of respectability and good standing, of known loyalty and of undoubted bravery. The six young men above referred to, has had the reputation of being among the best soldiers in the regiment. At the time that Gen Guittar was about getting up an expedition to join Gen McNeil in pursuit of Porter and Pindexter. These six was part of 25 picked men out of Co H to go with Gen Guittar. Their first engagement was that of "Moons Mill" in Calaway County, where they had to fight an ambush of for of more than double their number for four hours, at which engagement one of them was severely wounded (Henry Schultz). All the rest were engaged in the Battle of Whitesville another engagement that lasted over four hours. After Gen Guittar was taken sick, and the command turned over to Gen McNeil, they were in every skirmish in that memorable chase after Porter nearly all over north east Missouri having been out four weeks without sleeping under a shelter of any kind, and living on less than one meal per day on an average.

Sergeant John E. Foggie is a young English man about 24 years old, a young man of ~~respectability~~ of an excellent character and standing, has been a loyal man from the first had to leave his home and business about the time the 18th Mo. Volunteers were recruited he went to work and recruited a number of men for that regiment, after it was full, he joined Captain Glaze in recruiting a company for the 9th Cavalry M.S.M. he recruited thirty men whilst the captain recruited only three he paid all his own expenses whilst so recruiting. And up to the time of his arrest he had the reputation of being one of the best noncommissioned officers in the regiment.

Sergeant Thomas A. English is a young man 22 years old of fine qualities both of head and heart, possessing a great many friends in the army and out of it. He is a brave accomplished soldier, was one of the first to join the 9th Cav. helped to recruit that part of Co H raised at Glasgow Mo. Was recruiting as second Lieut. but after the company was consolidated with Capt Glaze's company, he went into the ranks, and raised himself by meritorious conduct in a short time to 5th Sergeant and would have been elected En^l Lieut. to fill a vacancy had he not been arrested for this offence, the place being now filled by another.

Private Arthur F. Huber is a young man about 20 years of age, of Irish parentage, poor, but respectable, a very brave and good soldier, very obedient to orders, as a general thing of sober habits, but unfortunately for him he was a little intoxicated on the night of the alleged disturbance, acted perhaps disrespectfully to his captain but is an honest quiet young man and a better soldier is seldom found.

John W. Howard is a young man 19 years old, rather reckless in his manner, he is one that was always selected by his captain when ^{he} wanted any thing done that required reckless daring about it, very obedient to orders, he is the son of a poor widow his father having died when he was quite a child. He is of German parentage, he has had but little education worked for his own livelihood since he was quite a small boy.

He was enticed away into the rebel army at the commencement of the rebellion by the son of the Rebel Gen. Price but soon found his mistake returned home and joined the 9th Cav. Coy when it was first organized. Has always up to the time of his arrest had the reputation of being one of the best soldiers in the company.

From what I can learn, he has had nothing to do or say in the disturbance on the night of the 18th of August. He was not with the crowd only a short time and that only as spectator. I believe him to be entirely innocent.

Private Henry Shultz is a young man about 18 years of age, the son of a good union man of Charleston Co. Young Shultz has the reputation of being a brave soldier and a good young man generally, although he is temperate in his habits. It has been reported to me that on the night of the disturbance he was a little intoxicated, was reported to be rather noisy and troublesome. He is the young soldier that was severely wounded at "Moss Mill" by being shot through the thigh. His youth and general good standing in his company should be taken in mitigation for any imprudence of his on the occasion of the evening of the disturbance.

Augustus Andrews is a boy scarcely 16 years old he has had the reputation of being a very good soldier for a boy of his age. He also was a little intoxicated on the evening of the disturbance, was noisy, and was arrested by the captain and sent to the guard house. He is the son of a widower of Charleston County. It is said he is a little wild or reckless but is a boy of sober habits had but little to do in the disturbance. He thinks his captain arrested him on that night through mistake, says he is not the one that was cursing at the time he was arrested.

This is a correct statement of facts as near as I have been enabled to collect them. I think, General, when yourself and Judge Dunn (the Judge Advocate) will examine all the testimony in their cases you will agree with me that they have now been punished sufficiently for the offence charged. I will here state that the man that deserved punishment most, was not arrested at all.

Berry Respectfully Yours

Statement of Sergt Thomas A English

On the night of the 18th of August 1863 at the Camp of Co K. at Brunswick. Some of the men were dancing in front of one of the tents whilst one of them was playing the violin. They were making some noise. Some of the boys had some whiskey in camp that evening. Some of them acted as if they felt unusually merry. About that time 8 o'clock at night the Bugle sounded for last roll call. All fell into ranks (the Captain being present) I saw nothing unusual. Immediately after I went to my tent, to go to bed, in a few minutes some person came to the tent where I was, and stated that the Captain and Sergt Foggie was quarreling. I stepped out and went to the tent where they were. Foggie was taking off his stripes. I think I asked some of the men "what was up". I think about that time the Captain told the men to "go to their quarters". I don't think he said anything to me at the time I had been only a moment in the tent. In a short time I heard that the Captain had arrested one of the men. I did not know who at the time, as the night was dark. Whilst I was talking to Sergt Foggie in the tent I heard someone say the Captain arrested another of the men. In a short time after words I went out of the tent and went up to the commissary tent, was standing near the door talking to two or three of the men, shortly after I saw the Captain go up to some men that were talking, and he took hold of one of them it proved to be A Andrews. I stepped up to the crowd and learned that the Captain was trying to take his belt and pistol from him. I then went up close to Andrews or within a couple of feet of him but nearer the Captain than I was to Andrews I saw that the Captain was trying to unfasten the belt, but which Andrews prevented by snilling himself. I think the Captain, about that time told the crowd to "Keep back". I stepped back I think rather behind the Captain and told Andrews to give it up to the Captain which ~~did~~ immediately. The prisoner was then turned over to the corporal of the guard. And Captain Gage went to his Head Quarters at a house outside the camp ground. I then went down the row of tents and stopped in front of my own talking to some of the men. In a short time I heard some noise and loud talking at the upper end of the row. Shortly after I heard some one calling my name, I unscrewed, I think it was W. Shroder, He told me, the men were talking of taking the prisoner out of the Guard House, (the other two having left of their own accord) I remarked "that would never do" I then went up to where they were and said, "boys what is the matter" Some person remarked they would run him out or upset the Guard House. I then told them they should not do so, that if they did they would all be punished. I found they would not be pacified. I then told them to hold on, and I would go and see the Captain. I then went to the house where the Captain kept his Head Quarters, just as I got near the door yard I met the Captain coming out. I spoke to him he stopped I then told him some of the men talked of taking the prisoner out of the guard House, I told him also some of them were in liquor and it was useless to talk to them. I then advised him to let the prisoner out till morning. The Captain told me in a very angry manner "he would not do it" We then walked together towards the camp I then said to him "Captain" I fear you will have to put more of them in the Guard House" He answered "if it is necessary to do so he would do it if it cost him his life" I then remarked to him, "You know Captain there is not a man in the company that would hurt you" He answered "he did not think there was." About that time the Captain stopped at one of the tents I passed on to where I left the men I then told them the Captain would not release the prisoner and advised them all to go to bed some were in favour of taking my advice whilst others were not. I did not "order the Captain to release the prisoners" by saying "Captain we want those prisoners out of the guard House" I think I know my duty as a Soldier as well to make any such foolish demand. Knowing in the first that there was but one of them in the Guard House, in the second place I knew if I should approach my Captain with any such demand it would be refused. I did not say in answer to the Captain "Then you will have to put us all in" I trust most people that know me would give me more credit for common sense than to make any such mistake, when it would be the means of implicating myself the very thing I was trying to save others from. I am very well aware that the Captain was very much excited on that evening, but how he could construe my language or good intentions in the way he has in his evidence against me I am at a loss to know. Anything that I have said or done in the matter was through the kindest of feelings, my object was to keep down the disturbance and restore good order. I did feel a little mortified to think that my Captain had treated me so roughly in reply to my (as I thought) very reasonable advice. In the crowd that talked of taking the prisoner out of the guard House, there was twenty or thirty persons, only 12 or 15 started for the guard House the greater part of the rest scattered to the different tents but some remained standing with me, some one of them told me to follow them up and try and stop them, I remarked it was no use, but I started and had got only about half way, when I met the prisoner at the division fence coming back with the crowd following him. I then asked him how they got him from the guard, he said they told him to "come along" that the guard did not say anything I then remarked to him, "it was a bad piece of business"; he remarked in answer "he could not help it, that he did not want to get into. After they got back to camp some of the men talked of going down to town to get more whiskey. I then went to orderly sergeant Lehman and requested him to go with me to try and prevail on the men to stay in camp. We then went together to the crowd and begged of them to go to bed that they had already acted badly. Some were in favor of doing so, whilst others were not. I then proposed that we all go and sing a few patriotic songs, which was agreed to. We then went and sat on the fence and sang the song "I'll be a Soldier" after which some person proposed three cheers for the Union which was given. Three men fell down with the intention of passing out, after which all went to bed. I suppose from the time of my call to the time all went to bed it was not even half an hour. I will say nothing about the testimony of witnesses in behalf of the prosecution. I think the animus of the men is very evident. Their statements of what I should have said next day is all fabrication. I think it was fixed up just before the trial. One of the witnesses admitted as much in his examination, but they don't agree in locating it in the same place. One says it was at the cook fire, another in the commissary tent in presence of Foggie and others. Whilst I don't forget to testify, he did not see me till quite late next day. There was a good deal said next day about the affair. I might have said something about the Captains course towards the men. It is most likely I did for ^{there} was but one sentiment on that subject. I did speak against the action of some of the men. I may have done wrong myself. I might have kept entirely out of it. I do not altogether hold myself blameless.

being one of the parties that was talking about whiskey in the tent about noon on the day of the disturbance, all that was said on that occasion was said in a joke, except what sergeant Bouze said about getting the company disbanded, he being always discontented & prepared the same wish often before. I think that conversation about whiskey was the whole cause of the disturbance. I hold I, as well as others, am to blame. I think there was no money collected for whiskey whilst I was in the tent. I never heard who contributed, or who bought it. I know one of the parties present told the Captain about it, also of the talk about his "liquor order" hence his quarrel with sergeant Foggie about talking against his orders, the starting point of the whole affair. My intercourse with Capt. Glaze has always been of the most friendly character. I knew many things of him that I did not approve, still he was my Captain it was my duty to obey him in every order which I am satisfied I have done in every instance, it was within my power to do so. If I have done anything wrong in the above case. It was an error of the head not of the heart. It was through the kindness of feelings that prompted me to be seen in crowd at any time, the young men were all my friends, could I see them acting thus wrongly without trying to use my feeble influence to stop them, I have the satisfaction of knowing that if I was not entirely successful, I at least saved some from difficulties that they might have got into. I am charged of violating orders on the evening of 19th of August. I plead guilty to the charge, but not in the way it is brought in the "indictment". On the day of the 19th I received a letter from my Father in regard to some personal matters I had to go to town to attend to it. I went to my Captain at six o'clock ^{for a help} he gave me to be absent for one hour. After getting to town I found I could not get back in time, and attend to the matter on hand, so I concluded as it was the first time I had failed in getting back in time, I thought the offense a slight one that would be overlooked as I had no doubt if I had asked the Captain for a pass for three hours he would have given it to me, for he never refused me a pass for any time I asked it of him consequently it was not through any "contempt" of the Captains orders I overstayd my ^{time} nearly two hours, the pass I did return, and laid it on his desk, the Captain not being in the office at the time.

I believe the above to be a correct statement of the whole affair, except in that part that took place between the Captain & Sergeant Foggins. I was not present till the difficulty was about over and can tell but little about it. In conclusion I will here state again, I, as well as all the rest of the noncommissioned officers are some to blame, the thing itself came up so unexpectedly that many did not know how to act, I went with these men to keep them quiet whilst others kept away and went to bed. who has done right thing or I it is impossible for me to tell. I only know that I am confined in Gravel at Prison, they are at liberty.

Defence of Sergt. Thomas A. English.

Charge 1st. Specification 1st.

There is no evidence to prove this charge. Capt. Glaze states the accused was in Sergt. Hoggins' tent when some of the men were coming. He must not take off his stripes or go to the guard house. He said "I am going to your quarters or go to bed" and then passed out. This may be all true, the accused has no knowledge of having the Captain make any such remark to him. When asked by the Judge Advocate when you said I am, go to your bed did he go? Answer, he wouldn't no reply and did not go. In the cross examination when asked if he heard the accused tell Sergt. Hoggins not to take off his stripes or go to the guard house. His answer is "I don't think I did". There is no evidence that the accused did refuse to go to bed as the order of the Capt. was only a general one, the accused supposed it was addressed to the men that were trying to prevent Hoggins from taking off his stripes. At the time the accused heard the Captain order the men to go to quarters, he had just got to the door of the tent and was only there a moment; when the Captain passed out. The accused remained there only a few minutes after the Captain passed out, making inquiries about the dispute between Capt. Glaze and Sergt. Hoggins. If Capt. Glaze had any idea of a disturbance, he should have called on him, as a subordinate officer, to assist him in keeping order. The accused cannot see how the Captain could construe his presence as an act of disobedience, when he had a general order to all soldiers of the camp. The accused was there less than five minutes after roll call, and half of an hour before lights. At this time the accused had not spoken, which the Captain admits, when he states "he did not hear him say anything." The accused does not think he has disobeyed any lawful orders of his commanding officer. Even if the Captain had any right to order him to go to bed before lights there is no evidence that he heard any such order, as it would be, at the time, a singular order to him, as he had taken no part in any dispute and had spoken to no one until after the Capt. had left, and then only to enquire about the difficulty. So the accused is not guilty of this charge.

Specification 2nd Charge 1st

There is not a particle of evidence to prove, the accused Thomas A. English guilty of this specification. The accused is at a loss to know how any court could find a verdict of guilty, on the evidence introduced to prove this charge. He is charged with remaining "out of camp on the 18th of August" in contempt of the Captain's orders; when, in fact, there is no evidence to prove that he was out of camp at all that day. All the evidence is to the contrary. It is true that Captain Stage and, ^{only} Sergt. Lehman testify, that he was absent from 6.30, to half past ten P.M. on the evening of the 18th of August 1868; but there is no evidence to prove that the accused was absent from camp, on the 18th of August, 1868, as charged. As in all criminal trials, the prosecution is bound to make out their case as stated in the indictment; the court has no right to presume that the offence was committed on the 18th, when the evidence states it took place on the 19th. The accused is not bound to correct the record for the prosecution. It is true that the accused had a pass to be absent on the evening of the 19th of August, 1868, to attend to some business that his Father had previously written to him about; and failed to transact it until after his term had expired, and until after roll call; which the accused could easily have proven on trial, if he had been charged with such failure on the 19th of August. It is not true that he did remain out of camp, on the 19th "out of contempt" of the Captain's orders. It is not true that he did "keep, or refuse to return his pass", for he did call at the Captain's headquarters the next morning and returned the pass, leaving it on the Captain's desk, the Captain being absent at the time. He did, at the same time, intend to make the proper explanation, had the Captain been in his office. On the whole the accused expected a verdict of acquittal by the same principle on this charge, as all trials before Courts Martial, are governed by the same principle of common law, as all criminal trials.

Specification 1st Charge 2nd

There is no evidence to prove, that the accused Sergt. Thomas A. English "did use seditious counsel or advice" or "employ other means means to raise a mutiny". All the witnesses in behalf of the prosecution state, they did not hear him say anything or do anything. Captain Stage states, "he thinks he was in the crowd, but don't recollect positively"; that was at the time of the arrest of private Anderson. Up to that time there was no evidence that the accused was in the crowd at all. The Captain himself, is not positive that he was even there at that time, and the accused is entitled to the benefit of the doubt. Other witnesses state they saw accused in the crowd, but do not state at what time. Sergt. Bruge states that the accused took part in the disturbance. He also states "about the first thing he saw or knew of it, he (accused) was trying to get some of the boys to help, the prisoners out of the Guard House." Now, if it is true that that was the first thing this witness saw of the disturbance, it is reasonable to suppose he was mistaken. If he saw accused trying to get some of the men to go with him to keep the men quiet; and hearing from others, that the crowd was going to take the Prisoner Anderson out of the Guard House, is it not reasonable to suppose he mistook the object of the accused altogether? This witness uses the terms in the plural sense as "they" and "prisoners" when in fact there was but one prisoner. That, Augustus Andrews, the other two having left the Guard House of their own accord, before Andrews was arrested at all. So if this witness knows anything, his ideas are very vague, and should not have any weight, when so many other witnesses testify that the accused did try to prevent the boys from committing any outrages. Corporal Smith states accused "had a hand in it" but he states "I don't know what he said or did, he was in the crowd." He does not locate the time, and it is to be presumed, it was about the time of the arrest of Andrews. Sergt. Gimmorman states, accused "had a hand in it" but states "he was not with them much." The presumption is, that he only saw the accused in the crowd at one time, which, accused does not pretend to deny; for it is in evidence that accused did go in the crowd, and talked to the men and begged of them not to commit any excesses. So the accused is not guilty, as charged.

Specification 2nd Charge 2nd

It is not true that accused Sergt Thomas D. English "did join a mutiny or sedition" as charged. In the first place there has been no proof that there was any such "mutiny", in said camp as alleged. It is true that there was some disturbance, and some noise, but no resistance offered to Capt Glaze or any other officer on that occasion. It is true that Capt Glaze did arrest three men of the company as is in evidence, for being noisy and somewhat boisterous. But there is not a particle of evidence that any man attempted to interfere with the captain in doing his duty. On the contrary from all the witnesses introduced, not one witness has attempted to state that any man offered to interfere with the captain in making such arrests. Nor is there any evidence that the captain at any time called for assistance, which he had a right to do, if any person resisted his orders.

The captain does not state in his evidence that accused did "step up behind Andrews when he was endeavoring to unfasten his belt" to take his pistol from him. Capt Glaze does not state positively that such was his intention, it was only his opinion. The accused was standing near one of the tents in company of Sergt Foggie and others, when Andrews was arrested. It is true that he did step up in the crowd to see what the captain was doing, when he got within a step or two of the Captain and Andrews, he saw the captain was trying to unfasten Andrews belt, which Andrews prevented by snelling himself. Just at that time the captain told the crowd to "keep back" which they did. Accused then told Andrews to "let the captain have it" (meaning the pistol and belt) he did so, immediately. This fact is testified to, by Foggie & Andrews. Capt Glaze states in his evidence that as "he started with the prisoner Andrews, a part of the crowd made a forward movement as if to release the prisoner, or offer violence to him". The accused did not see any such movement of the crowd, but he did hear the captain make some such threatening remarks, but he is satisfied the crowd had no such intention, as far as he could see or hear. The accused did not "join in a mutiny and is not guilty as charged."

Specification 3rd Charge 2nd

It is not true, that Sergt Thos D. English "did use seditious language, excite or cause a mutiny in said company, for the purpose of resisting the legal orders of his superior officer."

There is not one particle of evidence, that accused used any language calculated to "excite a mutiny", and to the contrary the witnesses for the prosecution all state, they "did not hear him say anything" or the prosecuting witness, Capt Glaze, does not attempt to say that accused said anything to anybody, nor does he say that he heard him speak at all. Not one witness has attempted to say that he said anything about the captain's orders, ^{on that occasion} on the contrary all the witnesses for the accused, has stated in evidence, that he did talk to the men advising ^{them} to keep the peace, and commit no outrage or excesses.

It is true, that accused did join in the singing and cheering after the disturbance was over, as Sergt Lehman states in his testimony, but in doing so, he did not violate any orders of his superior officer, but did it, more to quiet the feeling of the men ~~more~~ than anything else. Some of the witnesses for prosecution, testifies to some language that accused should have used next day, on the 19th of August 1863. The parties do not agree in locating it. Sergt Reese states it took place near his tent, Sergt Zimmerman states it took place at the cook fire. The accused is satisfied this was a mistake in these witnesses. But ~~as~~ the accused did not make any such statements as enforced by witnesses, but did talk with others about the affair. But as accused is not charged with any such language on the morning of the 19th as stated by witnesses, accused has not produced any witnesses to prove what he did say next day. Therefore, the accused is not guilty of the 3rd Specification, as nothing has been proven, to criminate him on the charge.

Specification 4th Charge 2nd

It is not true, that accused Capt Thomas A. English, did join in a mutiny for the purpose of releasing from the Guard House prisoner Augustus Andrews. There is no evidence to prove it, except that of private Stephen D. Ketchum, whose testimony has been ~~unsuccessfully~~ impeached by about 14 out of 25 witnesses called on, all admitting that his reputation for truth and veracity was bad, except one, that one, a relative of his. The accused could have sworn by seventy men in the company, that they would not believe Ketchum on oath, so it would be useless to comment on his contradictory statements. A number of witnesses for accused, state that he (accused) was not in the crowd that released the prisoner Andrews. Private Howard states that he (Howard) went up to the Guard House, and as the crowd was coming back with the prisoner Andrews himself states, that accused was not in the crowd, but that he had met him at the fence, on his return to camp about 30 or 35 steps from the Guard House. As regards to the last of Captain Blage's testimony, that relates to the visit of accused to him for the purpose of advising him to release the prisoner, the accused could not have left that impression on the mind of Capt Blage at the time. How foolish it would appear for an inferior officer to go to a superior officer, and demand that such a thing should be done, as there a soldier in the federal army, that would believe he could accomplish anything, by such a means. The captain was either too much excited, or he had some other cause for his conduct. But long & far better a soldiering and a soldier. It is unfortunate that the accused did not talk in third person with him, as he did see the Captain, but he did not have any idea that such a thing would be required, as he was only acting for the good of the command and also, to prevent some of the men from doing a thing that he well knew was wrong. It is admitted, for there is not a person that knows accused, but who would give him credit for more good sense, than to be guilty of so foolish an act. If Captain Blage was not in a proper mood to listen to reason, he should ^{not} have placed a false coloring on this unfortunate mission of accused. All the witnesses in behalf of accused, knowing anything about it, state that when the men talked of taking the prisoner out of the Guard House, he told them they should not do so, but not being able to prevail on them to accord with his wishes, he then told them "I would go and see the Captain and perhaps he would release the prisoner himself, as that seemed to be all they wanted." He did so, and met the Captain near his house on Headquarters; on speaking to him the Captain stopped, accused then told him "that some of the men were very much excited, and talked of taking the prisoner Andrews out of the Guard House, and advised the Captain that it would perhaps be better, for the sake of peace, to let the prisoner out himself." The Captain stated he would not do it. They then started for the camp together, talking about the matter on the way. Upon arriving there again, he told the Captain it was no other than he wanted him to get men to take him in the act of them in. The Captain stated "if it is necessary to do so, I will do it (or some such reply)" "if it cost him his life to do it he would do so." Accused then said, "you know Captain there is not a man in the company that would hurt you," the Captain then remarked "he did not think there was." The accused then left the Captain, and went to the men and told them that the Captain would not agree to let the prisoner out, and advised all to go to bed. Some agreed to do so and went away, while others did not, and some 12 or 15 went to the Guard House in spite of the remonstrances of accused. The accused will here state that he is responsible to some extent for the disturbance. And he with all the rest of the peaceable disposed men of the company, went with the Captain, the few that were disposed to be troublesome, would not have gone so far as to release the prisoner, but accused thought he could effect the same thing by milder means, but failed, and so became implicated himself. It was a mistake of the head, not of the heart, for which he has a thousand times regretted. In the trial of his case, the accused is well satisfied that no one has been conducted contrary to law. At the time that one of the most important witnesses was giving testimony, one of the members of the Court (Capt. H. Gordon) left the table, and laid down on some boxes in the room and went to sleep. The President of the Court did ^{not} notice his absence, until some members heard him snore. After the member was waked up, the Court went on with the case, without going back over the testimony again. Another good cause for setting aside the decision of the Court is, viz, the business was conducted with evident haste. The accused could not get time to make out a proper written defence, or statement of the case, from the evidence. He asked for at least a day and demanded a copy of the proceedings, but the Court would not grant either; so accused did not get over half an hour's time to make out his written defence. Therefore, accused could not or did not make out any written defence, as such, but only gave a few facts, throwing himself on the mercy of the Court. The facts in evidence will show how that "mercy" has been abused, by the findings of the Court. Another good ground for setting aside the verdict of the Court is this, at the commencement of his trial, it is the law that ~~that~~ the Court should be sworn according to article 29 of the Army Regulations, but in place of the proper oath, the Court was sworn by the oath laid down for the Judge Advocate, or otherwise, the Court and Judge Advocate were sworn by the same form of oath. It might be asked why accused did not object at the time? Accused would answer that he was so much tired that he did not come up before the Court. Accused did not, at the time, know that the Court would have to be sworn at each trial, not having had the benefit of an Attorney, or any friend to assist him except his Father, who was also ignorant of the law, in such cases. The accused knows that in the printed order of the Commanding General (Guitier) his case is placed first on the list, but this is not correct. The case of Capt. John W. Hoggins should come first. By this change was made, accused knows not. Another objection accused has to the proceedings of the Court is this; in trial of accused, the Court allowed the witnesses to bring up in his case every thing, other accused parties said or did in the alleged disturbances. The accused did object to this manner of proceeding, but objection was overruled by the Court. To show the illegality of such testimony, it will only be necessary to refer to the testimony of prosecuting witness Captain Glaze. When asked, "if there was a disturbance in his camp on the evening of the 15th of August" if so state what part Capt. English took in it. After stating "there was" he was in the crowd so he goes on to state what he did, what he saw, what he did and said, what Andrews did and said and what he brought some crowd of men intended to do. It does seem to accused that this style of testimony is all wrong. If the illegal acts of one party, should be brought up to effect the case of another, is a matter that accused cannot understand. It is not right to prejudice the case of the accused, by introducing any sayings or doings of others. In the finding of the Court in case of the accused, and after stating that accused shall be confined in some Military Prison and then be dismissed ~~from~~ the service "the Commanding General ~~has~~ ^{in approving} the sentence, has thought proper to add, that the Prisoner be dishonorably discharged from the service. It is admitted that the Commanding General has, in reviewing the proceedings of the Court & Marshal, the right and power, to commute the sentence or set it aside altogether, but he has no legal right to make the verdict quite than that of the finding of the Court. Some may contend that there is no difference between "dismissed" and "dishonorably discharged" but it seems to the Court that said accused, thought differently, when they found that English and Hoggins should be dismissed the service John W. Howard dishonorably dismissed the service and the case of Hoggins should be dishonorably discharged the service. All of which ^{difference, should the Court make such a difference in the same case?} is respectfully submitted by accused he asks that he be honorably discharged from prison, and be sent back to his regiment.

Thomas A. English.

Glasgow 11th March 1864

The undersigned, Willis P Ethridge a Colonel of Co A 9th Cav Md M. Respectfully represent that he has been arrested by the grand jury of Howard County, Md about the first of February last, on an indictment found by the grand jury of Howard County at the December term of the Circuit Court 1863. For Grand Larceny I was turned over by order of Geo Guilan and placed in the common jail and kept so confined for three days until I was admitted to bail under bonds of five hundred dollars to appear at the June term 1864. Herewith I submit a correct statement of all the facts in the case which can be proved by a number of witnesses.

Some time about the first part of November last having been sick for about four months under the surgeons hand and unable for duty. I received a furlough of three days absence to visit my home in Glasgow a distance of 14 miles. but as I was not able to ride on horse back another soldier by the name of ^{Henry} ~~the~~ Bailone proposed to go with me (if I would go up to his mother with him, about 5 miles above Glasgow) I then went to the livery stable at Fayette (where our company are stationed) and hired a buggy of Mr Duncan. My companion (Mr Bailone) put his horse in it and we started for Glasgow but the roads being very muddy our horse "gave out" after traveling about 7 miles we then stopped at Mrs. Nichols house to get another horse, Mrs. N. told us she had no horse at home but had some at another farm over a mile away from her house, which she proposed to send for if we could wade to do so. But as we had some distance to go and supposing that we could get a horse at the house on the road. We stopped next at the house formerly occupied by James Woods. The lady living there told us she had no horse on the place but an old blind one. We then went to the house of Mr James Woods, but Mr Woods was from home with his team. We then went about half a mile further to the pasture field of Mr Larkin Woods (which we supposed to be the pasture of Mr Bolton Swinney) In this pasture were several horses. We caught one of the horses and hitched him to the Buggy and turned our horse into the pasture. We went to the house of Mr Swinney and told him we had one of his horses and said it was a mistake that the horse belonged to Mr Larkin Woods his next neighbor. We then stated the ~~circumstances~~ circumstances of our horse going out and requested Mr Swinney to tell Mr Woods who we were, and let him know that we would be back with his horse the following evening or next morning and not to be uneasy about his horse, that we would satisfy him for all damages. We then went on to Glasgow and told several persons that we had left our horse in Mr Woods pasture and taken his horse as ours had gone out. On the morning that we promised to return this horse we started back to Glasgow on our way to Fayette with the intention of returning Mr Woods horse, and paying him for ~~his~~ ^{its} use, but before we reached Glasgow Mr Woods got there with our horse intending leave him with us and take his own but as we had not yet returned to Glasgow. That without them in command of a few more of the 1st Provisional Regiment hearing of the circumstances sent two men of his command to arrest us, which we met as we were coming into town. After reaching town we turned over Mr Woods horse to him, and offered to pay him for the use but he said he would not charge anything or would not receive any pay. He then proposed to Mr Wilhoit that he send us under arrest to Fayette and send a written statement of the facts to Maj Leonard of our Regiment, in command of the post at Fayette. He done so by telling us to report under arrest to Maj Leonard in town so and handed him the letter with the charges against us. Maj Leonard told us to go along about our business. Thinking the matter too trifling to pay any attention to it. The matter so rested until about the 8th day of February when we were arrested by the civil authorities. I will here state that Henry Ballou was the soldier that accompanied me when we took the horse, but his brother, Mr Ballou was indicted for the alleged offence. said Mr Ballou is here also under bonds of $200. Now as we are entirely innocent of any intention of committing any crime, we ask that we may be examined by a Military Commission and if we are not guilty of any criminal offence we wish to be restored to our Regiment. After we found that the horse belonged to Mr Larkin Woods we did not think worth while to go back a mile to see Mr Woods as in the said Woods had known me for ten or twelve years. I would here state that the grand jury that found the bill were all or nearly all Rebels or Southern sympathizers. If a Rebel had taken the horse it would be all right with them, but when a Federal Soldier takes a horse or anything else even for a short time when it can not be avoided. It is stealing. I think our cases come under General order No 34. But you, General, will be the proper judge of the fact. The above statement on all the facts in the case, which can be touched for by Maj Leonard and all the officers of our company, as well as many loyal citizens of Glasgow and Fayette I therefore respectfully ask that you take some action in the cases of Mr Ballou and myself, and cause a letter to be addressed to me at this place to let me know what action will be taken in my case.
